26 ¹ The Court does not generally accept telephone calls from counsel in chambers. The Court 27 is doing so in this instance as a one-time courtesy. To the extent Mr. Holper needs further relief 28 while he is unable to file documents with the Court, he must ensure that opposing counsel is also on the line. In the event Mr. Holper becomes able to file documents with the Court, telephone calls to chambers will not be permitted absent extraordinary circumstances.
